

- Road traffic crash injuries: a growing health problem
- Up to 50 million non-fatal injuries worldwide per year
- High economic burden (e.g. Australia: AU$29 billion annually)

- High percentage of injuries (85%) are minor & moderate*
- 62% of the costs for minor & moderate injuries*

- Long term physical and/or mental health problems
- Important impact on daily life

- Not everyone needs treatment
- How to identify the most in need?

- ✓ Screening tool
- ✓ Industry-specific (developed based on RTC injured cohort)
- ✓ Brief (8 items) & Simple
- ✓ Use by health and non-health professionals
- ✓ Calculates risk score for poor physical and/or mental health recovery